THE TOWN CRIER.

Hot.

Pave the streets.

Hot last night.

Dog days have passed.

Fish are very plentiful.

Gold in New York 115½.

Now you may eat a few oysters.

Most of the merchants are North.

No New York mail Monday night.

Rice birds are more plentiful and fat.

Magistrates do about all the business now days.

The next Superior Court will be held on the 20th of October.

Not enough Commissioners in the city last night to hold a meeting.

Bugs, mosquitoes, roaches and flies are as plenty as they were last Summer.

The Cape Fear is altogether too high, though it keeps running down into the sea.

The attention of the health officers is called to a bottle of "spoil cologne" near the corner of Seventh and Market streets.

Framed portraits of the four colored boys, the alleged murderers of Willie Carter adorns the walls of the offices of the city and county officials.

W. H. MOORE, J. P., disposed of the following case: London Perkins, for committing an assault and battery on the person of James Studwick. Perkins was dismissed on the payment of costs.

"DRANK ROCK SPRING WATER."—Mr. James McCormick, the well known merchant tailor, and formerly a citizen of this city, has come to live with us again. He is a courteous gentleman and an excellent cutter, and we have no doubt but that his former host of patrons will visit him at Messrs. David & Weill's, over whose tailoring department he has control.

THE question of the bridge over Brunswick river has agitated the people of Brunswick county for some time, and we are informed that Col. Jno. D. Taylor made a proposition to the County Commissioners, which will be submitted to the people of that county on the 25th instant. The question will be, "Bridge" or "No Bridge." The friends of the movement claim that the bridge will not cost the county an extra dollar, as the county derives a revenue of $6000 per year from the railroad, which was not formerly paid to the county, which will defray the costs. The expense of purchase will be settled by arbitration; Col. Taylor selecting one man, the County Commissioners one man, and the two to select a third, who will determine the price to be paid for that portion of the property. We understand that this is Col. Taylor's own proposition. A bridge over the river would be a great convenience to the people and we should be pleased to see it erected.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

John Merrick, charged with disorderly conduct, was continued until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

Sam Rashman, for violating the scavenger ordinance, was dismissed.

W. Muller, charged with having his bar open on Sunday forenoon was fined $50 and cost. An appeal was granted, and a bond of $100 required.

Mary J. Hines, charged with disorderly conduct in front of the City Hall, was dismissed.

Wm. Muller, for selling liquor on Sunday, was fined $50 and cost. Appeal granted.

Wm. Muller, charged with having his bar open on Sunday afternoon, was fined $50 and cost. An appeal was granted, and a bond of $100 required.

WILMINGTON CITY DIRECTORY.—Messrs. S. G. Hall and E. S. Warrock are making arrangements for publishing a full and complete Directory of the City. Instead of the "History of Wilmington from its commencement," it is the intention of the publishers to present a comprehensive and concise article on the commerce and business interests of the City; also, a description of the Churches, Schools, Public Buildings, Hotels, Railroads and Steamboat lines, &c. &c.

This Directory will be issued by the Fair in November, will be printed in this city, and no collections asked until the work is completed and delivered.

There has not been a time when a correct Directory of the City was more needed than at present, and we have no doubt but that our business men will promptly embrace the opportunity of liberally patronizing a work which will tend so much to their interest.

The Wadesboro Argus comes to us this week on half sheet—it has changed hands.

The hose men were sprinkling the streets for a couple of blocks to a very invigorating freshness. We have often begged that the cooling streams be thrown up Princess street, but so far, without success. We are opposed, however, to the plan of deluging the side walks with pools and puddles, and would suggest that the practice of throwing water on the walks be discontinued. It is a great annoyance to the ladies as it is sure to soil the clothes of every lady passing that way, and pools of dirty water on the side walks, we must confess, are hardly the correct thing for Market street. Sprinkle the streets yeppe men, but spare the walks.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

NOVA SCOTIA.

HALIFAX, September 2.

The Brig T. W. Argos, which left Liverpool, N. S., on the 12th February for Barbadoes, has not been heard of since.

The schooner Good Intent, of Archat, was towed into the port of Hood, C. B., on Friday, full of water. Five bodies were taken from her hold.

The schooner Sassacus, of Provincetown, Mass., was lost at Cape Negro, N. S., on Sunday night, during a storm.—She was from Grand Banks, bound home, and was at Port Mouton on the 23d, and when the gale came on anchored to the eastward of the rocks, near Cape Negro. She dragged her anchor, and drifted among the breakers.

The Capt. and crew left in three davies and were out all night. On the 25th, one of the davies, containing Joseph Silver, Manuel Silver and Anthony Thomas, of New Bedford, John Thomas, of Boston, Amos Conkum and Jno. Muxes, of Halifax, landed at Baecos light station, since which time nothing further has been heard of the other davies, which are believed to be lost.

The brig Faith of Swansea, iron laden foundered outside Casconpec bar P. E. I., and all hands lost.

The schr. Carrie Rich, Capt. Thompson was wrecked on North Cape Reef and all hands, 17 in number perished.

Several vessels wrecked near the North Cape of Prince Edwards Island, and eight bodies have been picked up on the east side of that place.

Capt. Speciman of the schr. J. W. Fall, which arrived at this port yesterday reports when off Sambre light passed the brigantine Dundee, Capt. Bradshaw, totally dismantled, and a schooner bottom up whose name he could not make out. Tugs have gone to their assistance.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, September 2.

A report prevails that the Geneva award of $15,500,000 has already been paid into Treasury, but on inquiry it has been ascertained that preliminary arrangements only have been made for this purpose.

It will be remembered that on the 6th of June the Secretary of Treasury issued a call for the redemption of certain series of five-twenty bonds, more than covering the amount of the award, in anticipation of its payment, and that the British government had arranged with the syndicate to discharge this treaty obligation. In pursuance of the plan adopted, a large amount of these bonds has already been surrendered to the Treasury, and gold certificates issued therefor, to be made available on and after sixth September, at the time of the formal redemption of the bonds.

These gold certificates, it is understood, are in the hands of the British Consul at New York, but are to be delivered together with other like representatives of specie value, covering the entire award by the British Minister to the Secretary of State and by him transferred to the Treasury as so much cash.

PROSPECTUS.
THE EVENING POST.
J. C. MANN,
EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.
Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.
The Post is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the
LATEST NEWS,
TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.
It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE, its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.
THE POST
is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an Advertising Medium
it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the Post is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.
Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicissitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.
THE ADVERTISING RATES OF the Post, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.
THE EVENING POST
is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or
COMMERCIAL,
will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.
THE POST
is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

AS A FAMILY PAPER,
The Times will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.
AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,
The Times will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the many kings, at a time when all the other daily papers, except a few, were obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The Times stood alone in demanding Reform from 1859 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proponent of Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the Times. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretences. It will encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity. It will sustain the policy of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.
THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:
C. P. Knight, Esq., Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly,
Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASSBAUGH.
THE PLAINS, FAUCIQUER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.
Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a hand-painter in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars in covering my kitchen, in glass, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention the being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work where paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate.
WM. E. SINN,
BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873.
Front Street Theatre, CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.
Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in glass, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.
Yours, truly,
JACOB STOUTER & SON.
FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.
Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.
Yours, Respectfully,
JOHN WETHERED.
BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.
C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheerfully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities are everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.
Very Respectfully,
EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St. House, Sign and Fresco Painters.
P. M. ARTHUR, HARTFORD CO., Md.
Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.
Very Respectfully,
C. P. KNIGHT, Sole Agent,
No. 93 W. Lombard Street, Baltimore.

Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World.
Harper's Magazine.
NOTICES OF THE PRESS.
The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.
The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with it, has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
